

OMEGA LEVINE

A portrait of Omega Levine, a man with dark curly hair, a beard, and glasses, wearing a dark hoodie. He is looking slightly to the left. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Omega Levine is one of New Zealand's most revered singer-songwriters, blending pop, rock, R&B, and alternative influences with soulful storytelling.

As the former frontman and songwriter for the multi-award winning Parachute Band, he toured internationally for 8 years across the USA, Canada, Europe, Asia, and Africa, performing to crowds of up to 80,000. During his time with Parachute Band, they earned 3 Aotearoa Music Awards, including the 'People's Choice' award. In his solo career, Omega has written for and collaborated with leading NZ artists such as Lee Mvthews, Jupiter Project, Mikey Dam, Chores, Rory Noble, Acacia, and many more.

He has performed as a featured artist at Synthony, and played major festivals including Rhythm and Vines, Bay Dreams, Freqs Out East, and Our House, while opening for international acts like The Chainsmokers, Genuine, and Gorillaz.

As a premier vocalist and performer with international recognition, Omega Levine brings unmatched energy, authenticity, and excellence to every stage - from corporate events and festivals to intimate gatherings and private functions.
